Sponsorship
and Exhibition Opportunities
Note from the Historical Association Chief Executive

I would like to thank all of you who have supported our conference exhibition over the years and have helped it grow into the vibrant event it has become. As a charity, we try to keep the cost of attending conference as low as possible, particularly for students and those new to teaching. The revenue we raise from the exhibition and from our sponsors helps us to do this. Conference is a special moment in the year, a chance to get together, swap stories, share experiences and generally chatter to other historians.

The exhibition provides an excellent opportunity to meet with teachers, head teachers, members of the senior management team in schools, primary co-ordinators, initial teacher trainers and many more involved in history education in its various guises. It provides space to discuss areas of shared concern.

GCSE History continues to be a challenge for many students and number of schools are looking for ways to encourage and enable those students who want to study history and to continue with history but may be struggling. Textbooks, digital resources, heritage and museum sites can offer new and innovative ways to help develop the subject for many young people.

The 2019 Ofsted Education Inspection Framework has highlighted curriculum design and subject understanding. A number of departments and subject leaders are reviewing their curriculum and are looking for resources to support history in their schools across the key stages from primary through secondary; the number of primary and secondary teachers attending conference offers a great opportunity for you to show how your organisation can help them.

CEO, The Historical Association
